PRIESTERAVIATION

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the fall edition of the Priester Aviation Newsletter. It's been a busy year for us, filled with more additions to our aircraft fleet and new exciting events.

One upcoming event you will not want to miss is our Open House on September 18th. The Open House is an opportunity for current and curious clients alike to tour our aircraft and meet our staff, including some of our pilots and management team. Co-sponsoring the event will be one of Chicago's premier exotic automobile distributors, Lake Forest Sports Cars. Also on hand will be Chicago Sea Ray, the area's pre-eminent dealer of recreation watercraft. Drinks are on us and further details are included later in this newsletter. We hope to see you there!

Over the past few months, our fleet has grown from 35 aircraft to nearly 50. Among the new additions is a Citation Sovereign — a beautiful new 8-seat super mid-size aircraft that will be based at our headquarters at Chicago Executive Airport. We are thrilled with the relationships we have developed, allowing us to grow into the world-renowned charter operator we are today.

So again, welcome to our latest newsletter. To everyone that has flown with us previously, we appreciate all your business. To those of you who have yet to take your first flight with us, we hope to see you aboard one of our luxurious aircraft soon.

I am always available for questions or comments about our services. Please feel free to contact me directly any time.

Warmest Regards,

Andy Priester

Getaway to a Weekend of Golf

Priester Aviation and one of America's premier travel companies, Design Travel, have combined their expertise to offer a unique travel experience. Priester clients can take advantage of these new and exclusive getaway packages. Maybe it's time to treat the team to a well-deserved respite, or perhaps you need to recharge yourself. You can be assured that Priester's custom packages are always the right fit.

You dream it, we design it.

Wake up to a day of golf at one of the nation's choice golf destinations. With Priester's point-to-point jet charter service, we offer direct service to nearly any luxury destination you can think of. You'll arrive within minutes of your destination, most of which are not directly serviced by commercial airlines. Less driving time means more time for you and your clients in meetings, on the course or at the beach. The charter experience also offers complete flexibility for arrival and departure time. While other companies may "broker" aircraft for vacation packages, with the Priester team, you are using our managed fleet of private jets, which saves any middle-man charges.

Another advantage to Priester's custom packages is the option to play at several different courses during the same trip. For example, a Chicago-based group can depart on a Friday morning from Chicago Executive Airport (PWK), arrive in Pinehurst, North Carolina by late morning, and play Pinehurst No. 1 that afternoon. After dinner and a peaceful night's rest, your party can fly the next day to Jacksonville, Florida and play Sawgrass. The following day is up to you. You can choose to play another course at a different destination, or just relax and enjoy the hotel or resort amenities.

For those in your party who prefer the sport of shopping or spa-going, Priester's packages can be designed with these amenities in mind. Design Travel will insure that these amenities are premium and accessible. You can also be assured that Design Travel will obtain the best possible price for your hotel or resort.

In addition to these deluxe retreats, Priester Aviation offers "local" golf destination packages. For example, if your party is traveling from Chicago, Priester Aviation will bring you to a nearby luxury golf resort in Wisconsin or Michigan for a one- or two-day getaway. You and your party will enjoy golfing "local" at championship courses such as the ones in Kohler, Wisconsin, which are consistently ranked among the best in the nation by leading publications.

Client requests are always welcome. If you have a personal favorite, the Priester team will work with you to build the most efficient trip possible. You'll have peace of mind, knowing that your travel to and from the city will be expedient, hassle-free and without worry.

Aircraft Sales & Acquisition

Whether it is evaluation of your aviation needs or the beginning of a beautiful friendship with a new aircraft, Priester Aviation provides outstanding support in aircraft sales and acquisition, understanding your requirements at every level.

Priester does not inventory aircraft, enabling us to focus exclusively on our client's specific needs of either purchasing, selling or trading aircraft. We provide owners with up-to-date information on aircraft, including market values and trends. If trading or selling is on your mind, Priester's team of experts will guide you through the process, analyzing the current operation of your aircraft and determining whether or not the market conditions are right for the transaction.

Priester offers services tailored to your needs with individual analysis of your current charter requirements. Our experts will work with you to understand your mission profile and to help you meet these needs. In evaluating your options, our team will provide you with comparisons of appropriate aircraft, indicating operational costs of ownership versus chartering and purchasing block time.

"We separate ourselves from the industry by believing in the philosophy 'Above it all.' Our operation is more of a boutique, designed to provide full and undivided attention to our client's requirements. Additional value added is our combined experience of over 60 years in the industry," says Rick Teel, Director of Aircraft Sales & Acquisition.

We have developed many relationships with industry leaders who provide Priester with worldwide exposure in the marketplace. After consulting with Priester, and determining if acquiring an aircraft is the right direction, our team will construct a plan for you. You'll have peace of mind knowing that an experienced and trusted team is working on your behalf. For more information on aircraft sales and acquisition, please contact Rick Teel at 847-850-5435.
